Lord of the Flies brims with rich symbolism: the beast, the fire, Piggy's glasses, the parachutist, and, of course, the conch. Most readers agree that the conch stands for law and order until, well, it doesn't. I did a little research on the breathing part of the conch shell, the animal who calls that shimmering pink cave its home.

Unfortunately the rules require that you remain in the Ready Room until the LSO comes by to verbally and publicly proclaim the landing grades. You got a No.1- wire , with a red ball in close. In other words, you were LOW, you almost hit the ramp , you endangered several million bucks worth of Navy property.
